

What is the difference if the local TV news, the Weather Channel, local radio or XM delivers the traffic and weather? NONE. All should have the right to broadcast public service announcements. The public would be better served if NAB gave guidance to some of the broadcasters on what constitutes quality content instead of the junk currently served up.